

SOUTH SIDE WINS TWO.

Interesting Games in the Over-the-Creek Bowling Series.

ONE GAME WAS HOTLY CONTESTED

And Nearly Won by the Knoke Aggregation—South Side's Team Scores Were Both Good—Glasscock Receives His Advance Money—What Buckenberger Thinks of Louisville's Chance—Results at New Orleans Yesterday.

Club	Won.	Lost.	Per cent.	High Average	Score.

Phenix	3	11	.214	771	725
Mozart	2	12	.143	777	727

About two hundred people went up to Mozart park last night to witness the two games in the South Side championship series, between the South Side and Knoke teams. The unusual attractiveness of the two contests lay in the fact that the teams were tied for the lead in the South Side race, and it was considered that the result would practically decide the race. Before the games South Side was a strong favorite and whatever money was put up was at long odds. The South Side club's adherents couldn't have been more confident and this confidence was justified by the fine work done in practice the day before, seven games averaging over 830.

South Side won the two games, the first one being as pretty a battle as one would wish to see. Knoke's boys were about thirty behind most of the game, in the last frame they made a good up-hill fight and almost won out. The feature of the game was the top-notch work of Colonel Schmuckbach, who bunched four strikes and made 167 pins. The score in detail:

South Side—Speidel 153, Marschner 103, Dudley 158, Travis 111, Handian 150, Wright 150; total 821.

Knoke—Knoke 137, Frohne 117, Kuntz 147, Schmuckbach 167, Finck 119, Kohn 120; total 807.

Knoke.....81 108 240 328 418 501 581 645 707 807

In the second game the Knoke aggregation was lost before three frames had been played, and they never showed front. Captain "Jack" Wright rolled the high score 155, and Kuntz for the Knoke was high with 148. The score was as follows:

South Side—Speidel 136, Marschner 145, Dudley 131, Travis 133, Handian 131, Wright 155; total 825.

Knoke—Knoke 100, Frohne 130, Kuntz 148, Schmuckbach 117, Finck 114, Kohn 110; total 725.

LOTS OF ADVANCE MONEY.

Glasscock Made Excellent Terms With Manager McCloskey, of Louisville.

According to the terms made by the Louisville Baseball Club with "Jack" Glasscock, it would seem that the Colonels intend to be in the arena next year, says yesterday's Pittsburgh Dispatch. A. C. Buckenberger, who had a conversation with the Wheeling ball player the other day, said that Glasscock had been given $500 advance money. Mr. Buckenberger said: "Manager McCloskey offered the advance money to Glasscock besides willingly giving the player a salary of $2,400 for the season. Glasscock certainly did not expect any advance money, but he got it."

Judging from the above the Colonels will have to do much better next season than they did last year if they are to stay to the end. It is natural to expect that if Glasscock is to have such excellent terms other players will have the same, and then comes the question: Where is all the money to come from?

A SPARRING CONTEST

Made Yesterday Between Charles Oeh and Buck Stelzer.

Yesterday minutes of agreement were made and a forfeit put up for a ten-round sparring match for points, to take place December 20, at the Columbian Athletic club's headquarters, in the Eighth ward, between Charles Oeh and Buck Stelzer. It is to be for $100, the winner to take 75 per cent and the loser 25 per cent. This promises to be as fine a glove contest as was ever seen in Wheeling.

Fanny Mock Trial.

Last Tuesday evening at the meeting of Ritchie Council No. 28, J. O. U. A. M., an interesting mock trial was held that created much amusement. The person who was accused was Samuel Simpson, a well known workman at the Riverside tube works. Mr. Simpson seldom indulges in oratorical flights, and on a recent social gathering he made a speech which was a marvel of composition and neatness of rhetorical precision. The members of the council heard of this and promptly charged him with making a speech outside of the lodge room and not speaking in it. A judge was selected, a jury of twelve men impaneled and attorneys appointed for the prosecution and defense. Messrs. Crano and Cunningham upheld the prisoner's side, while Messrs. Morris and McCuskey were for the prosecution. After some deliberation the jury returned a verdict of guilty and a sentence of six days' hard labor at the tube works, with three square meals a day and only one-half a pie for lunch was pronounced.

MR. HORKHEIMER DECLINES

To be a Candidate For Mayor, and Favors Mr. Caldwell's Re-nomination.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir:—In your issue of December 13, I find a communication suggesting my name as mayor of the city of Wheeling, signed "Second ward." I cordially thank the gentleman, whoever he may be, for the kind words spoken in my behalf, and feel very grateful, for if there was but one citizen in the ward who deems me worthy of the mayoralty of Wheeling, that in itself is some satisfaction, because to hold the office of mayor over a city made up of such good and intelligent people as ours I should judge sufficient honor for any man. Being unable to find any comfort in the Democratic ranks, as a protectionist, I was compelled to join hand and heart with a party whom I stand ready to-day to serve to the utmost of my ability in the interests of protection. I permit me to suggest that Wheeling has a mayor to-day in the Honorable E. F. Caldwell, whom I believe has the confidence of the entire Republican party; one who is not a recent convert, but who has been a zealous and ardent supporter of the people whom he has so faithfully represented as mayor of our city. He has been a judicious and competent official, and let us nominate him by acclamation to the office he has so faithfully filled with honor to himself, and credit to the city of Wheeling, and I will say to you in all candor that when the election day comes around Mr. Caldwell will be elected by a handsome majority, and we will again have an officer that we can all feel justly proud of. I have no political aspirations, but stand ever ready to serve in any capacity the interests of the party that stands willing to protect the homes of the American people, and believing Mr. Caldwell a good representative of the people, I commend him to the consideration of the people of Wheeling, regardless of party, and will faithfully promise him my support as against any other candidate that may arise.

Respectfully yours,

MORRIS HORKHEIMER.
Wheeling, December 13.

F. A. Blum For Council.
To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir:—Among the many good Republicans suggested at the meeting of the Eighth ward Republicans for council, there is one name that I wish to call attention to. Mr. F. A. Blum is a business man of high standing and ability, who would, I am sure, represent the citizens of the Eighth ward and of the city with ability. I am one of many Republicans of the Eighth ward who hope to see Mr. F. A. Blum nominated by a large majority. Ensign Ward, Wheeling, Dec. 13.

A Card From Mr. Milligan.

To the Public:

There is, apparently, a determined effort on the part of some persons to defeat me for the nomination for council in the Second ward. The objects of this effort, and the sources through which they emanate, are well known, and the reports circulated as to my past action in council, and as to my future action, if I shall be defeated, are false, malicious and are intended to mislead. I have not pledged nor entered any combination to support any certain candidate for fire marshal; and as to any action in the past on my part while in council, I acted conscientiously and firmly, and endeavored to legislate for the best interests of the public in general.

F. M. MILLIGAN.

AN INTELLIGENT RESIDENT OF THE CRIPPLE CREEK REGION HERE.

Mr. William Peters, who has been engaged in the assaying department of the Lawrence Gold and Extracting Company, of the Cripple Creek region in Colorado, stopped off yesterday on his way home from the east to pay a visit to his nephew, Mr. William Williams, of the Island. Mr. Peters is a colored man and a very intelligent talker, and a thorough expert in his business. He is now engaged with Delamar & Co., who are conducting a new process of extracting gold from the ore. It is called the chlorating process, of which Mr. Peters gave a very interesting description. Briefly it consists of crushing the ore, and then taking the metal and subjecting it to a heat of 96 degrees. It is then run into a cooling floor, and thence to chlorating barrels, which in revolving separates all sands and baser metals from the gold. This product then goes through scorifier furnaces, and is finally run into gold bricks, weighing from three to nine pounds, worth from $19 to $20 an ounce.

The largest mines in the Cripple Creek region, Colorado, are the Victor, Sweet, Elkton, Pike's Peak, Anacoda and Independence, which produce from ten to fifty tons of ore per month, valued at from $100 to $160 a ton.

The Pueblo Consolidation Company operates four mines, the largest of which is the Raven Hill. Mr. Peters, while east, succeeded in disposing of 185,000 shares in these mines, and on his return will take charge of a portion of the property of this company.

Mr. Peters and his associates are interested in part of a claim adjoining the Gold King mine, in the Cripple Creek district, in which Wheeling people are interested.

Pretty Children's Party.

A pretty children's party was given yesterday afternoon at the residence of City Clerk Andrew Sweeney, on North Front street, Island. A large number of little ones, many attended by their parents, were present. A pleasant afternoon was spent by the children, and refreshments were served during the course of the party.

"CURED," THE DOCTOR SAID,

But the Soldier Suffers from the Vicksburg Bullets to This Day.

"The motto of modern medicine," says a writer in the British Medical Review, "is prophylaxis."

It is not an easy motto to spell, but anybody can see how sensible it is by substituting for the tough Greek word its English equivalent, prevention. Let us illustrate. A soldier shot at Vicksburg was discharged from the hospital, cured, more than thirty years ago. But the bullet is in his body yet, as he is reminded when the weather changes. His wound weakened him for life.

So, an attack of disease may, and frequently does, leave malignant effects long after the doctors say it has been cured. The writer just quoted says that the wisest plan is to keep the body so strong that it will throw off sickness of its own accord. Never let the system run down. If there is a liability to take cold, a disposition to sneeze and to cough, and a stiffness of the muscles, you may know that the body forces need stimulating, to meet a danger so common in this climate this season. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is made to meet such emergencies. It is in line with the most advanced thought of medical authority. Prepared for medicinal use only, it is the price prevention. People who take it to cure slight colds never have racking, exhausting coughs. Their voices are clear, their eyes are bright, and their blood bounds through their veins as nature intended that it should.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey assists digestion and thus keeps rheumatic twinges at a distance. For the beginning of rheumatism, as all physicians know, it is in a lax or disordered stomach.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Haps and Mishaps in the Thriving City Across the River.

Judges Laubie, Woodbury and Frazier, of the circuit court, rendered a unanimous decision in the Fifth street injunction case yesterday. The city is to pay the bill for the fill and the costs of the case. In the first place John C. Hayne enjoined the city council from issuing bonds to the amount of $5,000 to pay for the fill and partial paving of North Fifth street, and Judge Driggs made the injunction perpetual. The case was appealed to the circuit court, tried on Tuesday, argued on Wednesday and yesterday the judges rendered their decision. The injunction was made perpetual as far as $1,700 of the amount is concerned, that amount having been paid by the taxpayers on the street, but the court decided that the city of Martin's Ferry could legally issue bonds for the remainder of the $5,000 to pay the contractor, C. C. Cochran, who performed the work nearly two years ago. The bill, including the costs in the case, will be about $3,400, and the city council will take immediate steps to issue bonds for this amount, and Mr. Cochran will get his money, if the case is not appealed to the supreme court.

The fees of the attorneys alone have already reached $150 and the city will have to foot the bill. Some persons held that Mr. Hayne, who got out the injunction, would be obliged to pay all the costs in the case, if the circuit court decided the case in favor of the city council or the contractor, Mr. Cochran. But the court decides that the city is to pay the costs. It was claimed that should the injunction be made perpetual the Cochran bill would be saddled on the councilmen who made the contract.

Only time will determine what will be done with the matter. It is claimed that a petition in error will probably be filed for an appeal in the case to the supreme court. C. C. Cochran, who has waited so long for the money due him for the work, contemplates bringing suit for big damages against John C. Hayne. Cochran claims that he has lost several large contracts because his money has been tied up in this job and that he has been damaged in other ways.

R. M. Hughes, who recently sold his interest in the Hush Steam Pump Co., of Cleveland, charges that firm with defrauding him, and says he is probing into some of the contracts received by the company, alleging that bribes were paid by the company to officials for contracts in different Ohio towns, and among them Martin's Ferry. He claims to have had a detective in Martin's Ferry and alleges that the Martin's Ferry water board let a contract on November 18, 1891, to the firm for $12,990 and that it cost $1,400 to get the job. He goes on to state that the bid of the Gordon Steam Pump Co., of Hamilton, was $12,550, and the Wilson-Snyder Pump Co., of Pittsburgh, $11,425, and against the contract a large amount was charged up on the books of the company in Cleveland. John Hoyer and Stephen Hopkins, who were water works trustees when the contract was let, claim that the Cleveland pump was selected because it was the best, that the charges of bribery are false in every particular and that they want to be protected.

BELLARE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

Robert Mason, a rather hardened old fellow who has served time in a penitentiary and been behind the bars many a time before, was locked up yesterday on a charge of stealing oats from the bin of Jacob Boneysteele. He confessed to this after Boneysteele told his wife if they paid for what they got he could go as far as he was concerned. But before anything was done Marshal Bahra and Meyer Herzberg went down to Mason's house to look around and about the first thing Herzberg saw was an elegant table cover that was among the clothing stolen from his home last Sunday night. A few other things were identified and taken, but the most valuable pieces could not be found. Herzberg made some promises to Mason and he told him he would get things for him if they were at his house and the marshal, culprit and Herzberg went down, but Mrs. Mason said there was nothing there, finally agreeing if they would let her husband go she would get the things and bring them to the mayor. But when the woman appeared with some of the things she was locked up and will be tried with her husband for receiving and hiding the goods he stole.

Monroe county comes to the front with another sensation this week. M. B. Slay, a photographer in the little town of Jerusalem, on the B. & C., shot himself in the head Wednesday evening. The wound is a fatal one, but Slay was not dead at last accounts. He was a man about 50 years of age and has a wife but no children. His business has been poor lately and this is the only cause known for his rash act. He placed the revolver to the right side of his head just back of the ear and must have pressed the muzzle against his head when he fired. The ball lodged at the base of the brain.

The Adams Express Company has placed secret service men in charge of the robber mystery at Woodsfield and information, if there is any, is hard to get so far. John Heck, Jr., the injured agent is in a precarious condition and has alternate spells of a clear mind and deliriousness. It is known that he knew the face of the man who attacked him, however, but secrecy has been enjoined upon all and little of what he said in his lucid intervals is given out.
